Special Properties Real Estate Services announced the opening of its latest brokerage office in Summit.

The new office, Special Properties' first in Union County, is located at 47 Maple St., near the Summit Train Station and the Village Green.

"Summit is a bustling city-like locale with the flair of suburbia, making it the perfect location for Special Properties newest office. With a growing population, a robust downtown business district, and a wide array of residential opportunities, Summit was a logical choice for our latest office location," said Ilija Pavlovic, president and chief executive of Special Properties. "We are looking forward to being able to provide our recognized level of service and the reputation and power of Christie's International Real Estate to the people of Summit, Union County, and the region."

Special Properties Real Estate Services is based in Mahwah.
